This event has no connection with any other Pony/Riding Club or organisation. The organisers have taken all precautions to ensure that competitors and spectators have an enjoyable and safe event. The organisers have undertaken a Health & Safety Risk Assessment for persons of this event. For this Event to run safely for all, all persons competing must follow the directions of all signs and notices and obey the instructions given by *ACEL Officials and announcements given over the tannoy system. Failure to follow any of these instructions may result in removal from the show ground.

*ACEL cannot be held responsible for any accident, damage or loss to any animal, person or their property, no matter how caused. Persons attending this event have a duty of care to themselves to ensure that they conduct themselves in a safe and careful manner, respecting all others attending.

*ACEL reserve the right to refuse any entry without any reason being given.

Land at *ACEL is grazed by livestock, therefore, it is essential that no litter is left on the ground – either use the litter bins provided or take litter home. Please do not skip out your horse box or trailer on the show ground.

Any person that fails to comply with these rules may be asked to leave the premises
