

A snapshot of Alps Court Equestrian Leisure, what we do and the organisations that use our excellent facilities

- For the last few years, Alps has been running a series of Indoor Hunter Trials, jumping XC fences indoors, during the winter months
- Rugby training continues at Alps again this year, using the indoor arena, to facilitate training whatever the weather
- Dog Agility continue to avail themselves of the facilities at Alps Court, for training and shows
- Pony Club B & C tests and training
- Tredegar Pony Club Camp for many years in succession
- Llangeinor Pony Club Camp at Alps for 5 days in summer
- Hunter Trial National Qualifier, sponsored by Horseware Ireland
- One Day Event for the Terrified, introducing riders to the world of eventing, giving confidence and encouragement to the beginner
- Jumper Trial, a new idea at Alps, combining XC and SJ in the open country
- Spring, Summer & Autumn Shows, incorporating Crickland Qualifiers, Showing and Novelty classes
- Pony Club Rallies hosted by Alps for Tredegar, Dinas Powys, Glamorgan, Llangeinor and Aberdare Pony Clubs
- Riding Club Rallies hosted by Alps for Mynydd and Rhyddydd Riding Clubs
- Hunter Trials course designed by Alps Court hired by Banwen Miners Hunt, Caerphilly Hunt and Glamorgan Hunt
- ODE run by Alps Court under British Eventing Rules
- Team Building Courses, using the facilities at Alps Court
- Area 35 Riding Club SJ Qualifier
- BHS Dressage Judge training & BHS Clinics

- A variety of Lecture Demos, with guest facilitators and coaches
- XC course hire, including group and individual training sessions
- Instruction offered in all disciplines to individuals and groups, with competitive rates and group discounts
- If you represent an organisation that would be interested in using the facilities at Alps, then please get in touch